

Collectors' Corner

Ladies, we have a wonderful day planned for you! It just might take the entire day to see, experience and taste all of the wonderful treats that await you at Collectors' Corner in Sharpsburg. This rambling yellow house, located at 8861 Hwy. 54, is a 22,000-square-foot collection of new and old with a charming tearoom and a friendly staff.

The first floor is a meandering layout of wonderful rooms filled with gifts, home accessories, furniture, collectibles, holiday décor, and so much more. The Thomas Kinkadee Gallery showcases the "light illuminating" canvases of the famous artist, with a varied selection of collectibles representing his works. A sunny garden room is filled with whimsical birdbaths, wind chimes, garden gifts and accessories. You'll also love the ladies boutique, which offers a great selection of Brighton products, fashionable clothing, accessories, and an array of exciting jewelry and handbags. For younger customers, another area is brimming with gifts, educational toys, clothing and keepsakes for ages birth to teen. Each room is filled with treasures at every price from lamps, custom florals and tabletop accessories to sumptuous bath/body products and delicious Georgia jams, jellies and candies. The second floor is occupied by more than 30 antique dealers who offer a variety of antique furniture, glassware, vintage collectibles, and more.

There is truly something for everyone in this collection of treasures. Open Monday-Saturday 10 am-6 pm and Sunday 1-5 pm. visit www.collectors-corner.net or call 770-251-6835.

Shop till you drop, then relax for lunch or dessert in the charming Jasmine Tea Room, which offers a varied menu of soups, sandwiches, salads and special entrees. The Tea Room is open for lunch Monday-Saturday 11 am-4 pm and Sunday noon-4 pm. Call 770-254-8564. (Color photo featured in front section of book.)
